For Students and Parents

The Partnering for Eternity (PFE) program pairs students with mentors to build inter-generational friendships and provides tuition assistance.

Partnering for Eternity Program

The Partnering for Eternity (PFE) program offers grants for the student's Christian education, providing $25 per visit. Students, along with a parent (in the case of K-8th graders), visit a mentor weekly to build a relationship. Students help around the house and complete fun projects with their mentor.

Student/Parent Participant Requirements

- Commitment to visit a mentor once a week for one hour
- Parent attendance with the student on each visit for students grades K-8th
- Desire to serve, grow, and build a friendship with a mentor
- Willingness to learn from a mentorship
- Attend mandatory parent meeting provided by RAA (Date TBA)
- Applications must be submitted by the deadline (TBA)
- Parents must commit to participate in fundraising events throughout the year
- Families not participating consistently may be dropped from the program

How Does it Work?

- Choose a mentor such as a church member, neighbor, or family friend (no relatives)
- Submit application online at southern.edu/pfe
- Once your student's application is approved, begin visits to build inter-generational friendships
- Visit this mentor for one hour, once a week (for the entire school year)
- Submit reflections about the visit online (within 72 hours of your visit)
- Receive tuition grant of $25 for each one-hour visit

How to Apply

- Attend mandatory parent meeting prior to the start of the program (Date TBA)
- Complete online application at southern.edu/pfe
(Participation is limited to two siblings per family)

Additional Information

- Applications must be submitted before the deadline
- Preference will be given based on the date the application is submitted
- PFE committee reserves the right to make all decisions pertaining to the program
