

2018-2019 YEARBOOK

Interested in being on the yearbook staff next school year?

➤ BRING THIS APPLICATION TO THE SCHOOL OFFICE COMPLETED BY FRIDAY AUGUST 3

RAA Yearbook Advisor: Mrs. Hill and Mr. Griffith

RAA Yearbook Editors: Grace Geraty and Katrina Yap

Requirements for ALL Staff

- Commit to yearbook
- Take the initiative
- Handle constructive criticism with maturity
- Turn in assignments ON TIME
- Be in minimal varsity sports (max of two)
- Attend meetings on Friday after school until 1:30 PM (failure to show up to meetings will result in a polite request for you to leave the yearbook staff)

Circle the position which interests you the most.

Photography

- Owns a camera and has some experience taking pictures
- Attends assigned events and takes lots of pictures of EVERYONE
- Gets photos from elementary teachers/parents
- Turns in photos to head of photography, editor, or Mrs. Hill
ON TIME

Layout & Design

- Works with Adobe InDesign and Photoshop
- Uploads photos from yearbook photographers, elementary teachers/parents, historians, etc.
- Completes spreads ON TIME
- Attends meetings on Thursday after school until 4:30 PM unless told otherwise
- Attends meetings on Friday after school until 1:15 PM unless told otherwise

Writing (everyone)

- Writes for yearbook spreads
- Gets writing from elementary and junior high teachers/students

In the space below, please write one or two paragraphs on why you would like to be on the 2019 RAA yearbook staff and how you can contribute. Include your experiences with InDesign and/or Photoshop, taking pictures, or writing. 8th graders can join us as part of our photography team.

I agree with the requirements for a yearbook staff member, and I have circled the position in which I have the most interest. If selected as one of the 15 high school and junior high staff members, I agree to commit to the RAA Yearbook for the 2019 school year.
